My Colonial Journal for Boys is an interactive journaling notebook that combines lessons in Colonial / Revolutionary War History with daily journaling and writing projects. The journal is divided into three units: Early Colonial Life, Revolutionary War Home Life, and History of the American Revolution. Each section includes weekly "Diary Days" and the writing of a short story on the final day of the unit. This journal is perfect for classroom or homeschool use. Parents may use it in conjunction with their child's social studies curriculum. It also makes a great summer-long project for kids to learn more about their early American History! The culmination of the 50-day experience is the writing of the "My Masterpiece" short story, which kids can enter in the yearly Short Story Competition at mycolonialjournal.com. A companion My Colonial Journal for Girls is also available.

For kids age 9-12.
